

L'Arte — Renaissance in the Words That Made It

Capsule Culturale · L'Arte · Cultural · Any level · 6 sessions × 60 min

The Promise

Six live cultural sessions on the Italian language of art history — from Giotto to Caravaggio — with the vocabulary that lets you read a museum wall label in the Uffizi.

On Completion, You Can:

- › Read a full Italian museum wall label without translation
- › Understand a Uffizi or Vatican Museums audio guide
- › Talk about painting, sculpture and architecture in Italian
- › Grasp the terminology of the Italian Renaissance
- › Discuss Caravaggio, Michelangelo, Raphael and Bernini in their own language
- › Take an Italian guided tour with confidence

The Syllabus — Week by Week

Lesson 01 · Il vocabolario del dipinto

The Italian vocabulary of painting — tela, tavola, affresco, tempera, olio, sfumato, chiaroscuro.

Lesson 02 · Giotto e il Trecento

Giotto and the birth of Western perspective. The vocabulary of pre-Renaissance devotion.

Lesson 03 · Il Quattrocento — Firenze

Brunelleschi, Donatello, Botticelli. Reading Vasari on the Uffizi masters.

Lesson 04 · Il Cinquecento — Roma

Michelangelo, Raphael, Bramante. The Sistine Chapel and Saint Peter's in their own vocabulary.

Lesson 05 · Caravaggio e il Barocco

The Caravaggio revolution — luce, ombra, realismo. Reading a Bellori page.

Lesson 06 · Bernini e la Roma barocca

Bernini's Rome — Piazza Navona, Piazza San Pietro, the language of Baroque sculpture. Cultural graduation.
