

Chiacchierando

Parliamo · Confident · Spoken A2 → B1 · 20 sessions × 85 min

The Promise

Twenty live conversation sessions on the four things Italians actually do all day: opinion, humour, disagreement and storytelling. This is where confidence becomes fluency.

On Completion, You Can:

- › Hold a full 30-minute Italian conversation on any everyday topic
- › Express opinion, doubt, sarcasm and humour
- › Disagree politely and change someone's mind
- › Tell a story with structure, pacing and punchline
- › Understand rapid native banter and jokes
- › Sit and pass an internationally recognised B1 oral exam

The Syllabus — Week by Week

Lesson 01 · Chiacchierare — l'arte italiana

What chiacchierare really means. The philosophy of unhurried talk.

Lesson 02 · Raccontare una storia

Storytelling structure — introduction, complication, punchline. Italian narrative style.

Lesson 03 · Fare una battuta

Italian humour — the setup, the beat, the payoff. Regional humour.

Lesson 04 · Discutere di calcio

Football arguments. Fifteen minutes on Juve vs Milan and no one leaves offended.

Lesson 05 · Discutere di politica

Political conversation — how to hold a strong opinion without breaking a friendship.

Lesson 06 · Parlare di famiglia

Family talk — the mother-in-law joke, the cousin gossip, the Sunday lunch.

Lesson 07 · Parlare di lavoro

Work talk — complaining, bragging, gossiping about the boss.

Lesson 08 · Parlare di soldi

Money talk — Italy's ambiguity around money. What is said and what is meant.

Lesson 09 · Parlare di amore

Love talk — flirting, breaking up, staying friends. The vocabulary of the heart.

Lesson 10 · Metà strada

Full midpoint conversation lab — 30-minute unstructured chat with the teacher.

Lesson 11 · Il pettegolezzo

Gossip Italian — the register, the euphemisms, the raised eyebrow.

Lesson 12 · La lamentela

The Italian art of complaining — bureaucratic, personal, existential.

Lesson 13 · Il consiglio

Giving advice in Italian — what to say, what to never say.

Lesson 14 · La discussione

Real disagreement — how to argue and still finish the meal together.

Lesson 15 · La riconciliazione

Making up in Italian — the words, the gestures, the coffee that follows.

Lesson 16 · Il monologo comico

Stand-up Italian — analyzing a comedian's routine and trying one yourself.

Lesson 17 · Il talk show

Watching a real Italian talk show together. Register, interrupting, humour.

Lesson 18 · Il podcast

Listening to a real Italian podcast, then discussing it in Italian for 40 minutes.

Lesson 19 · L'intervista

Being interviewed and interviewing — a full role-play in Italian.

Lesson 20 · Arrivederci — al livello B1

Final CEFR B1 oral assessment, graduation ceremony, path to advanced study.
